HOLY CROSS ACADEMY

Dear Good People of Saint Mary,

By the time you read this, I'll be in the air on my way back to Saint Mary! Right now, I'm writing this article last Sunday, as I am packing the last things in my luggage to leave for Rome this afternoon. I'll write this in the past tense with the hopes that it makes sense.

About three months ago, Pope Francis declared that we start a dialogue between Buddhists and Catholics in the United States. Many people wonder why he would do this, as "dialogue" between churches and religions usually represents in suspicious minds some diplomatic motive. It isn't the work of unity we seek (as we might seek between the baptized in Christian churches) or even the process of trying to find agreement. It is "dialogue" in the simplest sense of the word, a seeking of relationship, friendship, to correct misunderstanding and discover what we share and what is different. Often it results in resolutions for activities, social programs, public statements that speak to our common life in society with regard to justice and peace.

If we had more attempts at understanding and friendship in the world, we would have a lot less hatred and discrimination, this racism that should have long ago become an absurdity to people who knew each other.

The problem is, we don't know each other, and we find comfort in keeping a distance. Distance leads to isolation, isolation leads to extreme behavior. We all know the rest of the story: it plays itself out every night on the evening news.

So this week 12 Catholics and 12 Buddhists were called to the Vatican. Three of each from Los Angeles, Chicago, New York and Washington, DC. The meeting was originally planned to take place in the United States, but Pope Francis asked that we come to Rome, presumably to make clear the priority that he places on this conversation. And this time, it isn't a dialogue that takes place among academics only (this is why I'm a part of the dialogue): Pope Francis wanted pastors to be a part of the cohort, too, so that the work of bringing it home and making it happen at home might be more successful. We have so many dialogues that have taken place these past 50 years that you wouldn't believe it, actually. But the people never find out about it because it remains in scholarly journals and upper levels of leadership, not making its way into the pews and the hearts of everyday people who wish the Church would do something about these things.

Just visit the website of the Conference of Bishops (<http://www.usccb.org/beliefs-and-teachings/ecumenical-and-interreligious/>) to see how many, many of these dialogues have been going on for years... but people don't ever go looking for papers. They look for the proof of it in the daily life of the Church.

Anyway, I will be giving a paper on Tuesday morning: "Relational Suffering between Persons: The Teachings of Jesus Christ." The theme is "Suffering, Liberation, Fraternity." I'm pretty excited. If you want to read it, a link to the paper has been added to the Saint Mary home page. I think it has a pretty nice presentation of the Blessed Trinity. Without understanding how Catholics believe God is self-emptying out of love, we will never get to the realization that suffering united to Christ is redemptive. It has a purpose, and a good effect.

If all goes according to plan, we will attend Pope Francis' Wednesday audience in St. Peter Square, then go to a private room where Pope Francis will speak to our group alone for about an hour, what he hopes to come out of our dialogue, such things. Then we will have a nice "Vatican lunch" (can't wait) and a private tour of the highlights of the Vatican. Sounds like an amazing opportunity. I will tell him that Saint Mary says, "Hola."

Our papers and discussions will continue through Saturday, and then we will fly home on Sunday. I won't get home until late on Sunday evening.

Say a prayer for us that it goes well, that we begin this dialogue with a wonderful spirit of fraternity and grace. What we are doing is unprecedented with Eastern religions. Maybe you saw in the Arlington Catholic Herald a couple of weeks ago, that our diocese was pivotal in helping make happen a new dialogue with the Hindu community in the United States, which found its beginning in a simple friendship in Fairfax County. All it took was a little courage: one day I stopped at Durga Temple, took off my shoes, went inside and introduced myself. We became friends, and now there is a dialogue where before, there was nothing.

So may it be, and so may it be so simple, in reaching out to those with whom we find ourselves at odds, or strangers. May families, communities, and world religions find peace.

God bless you. Fr. Dom

Thanksgiving for our school year and blessings for the summer

At Holy Cross Academy we end our school year the same way we begin: we invite all our families to come together at Mass. At the end of the year, we gather at Saint Mary Church to thank God for the many blessings of the school year and to ask his blessings on our summer activities.

After Mass, all our students, parents and family members were treated to a lunch prepared by our parish staff. We want to express our gratitude to Fr. Don, our St. Mary priests and staff and all our parishioners for your support and encouragement all through the year.

If you would like to learn about our school and what we can do for your child, please call our office at 540-286-1600. We are currently registering all grades for the 2015-2016 school year. We extend a special invitation to families who want to learn about our kindergarten program here at HCA.

For St. Mary Preschool, please call 540-373-7553. Our school is a place where each child can flourish, grow and learn. We would love to hear from you and will gladly give you a tour of our National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence and tell you all about the wonderful opportunities we provide for our students. You can learn a lot about us by visiting our website, www.holycrossweb.com.

parish life happening here

Thank You Vacation Bible School Volunteers, Participants and Parents

After many weeks of planning and preparation, the children spent a wonderful week learning practical teachings on Mary, Queen of heaven, and how she leads us to her son, Jesus, our King. The children learned the importance of making Jesus the King of their lives through faith lessons, music and virtue demonstrations, creative crafts, delicious snacks, and active skits.

Called to serve as an usher or greeter at Mass?

Please answer our open invitation to serve as an Usher or a Greeter at Mass. Do you feel called to help people feel welcome and experience good order at our liturgies? We are currently seeking to fill our Ushers' roster with adults who can help people as they arrive at Mass and get seated, facilitate the offertory and help with good order at Communion. We also invite teens and adults to welcome people as Greeters, help people from their cars into the church, give them a liturgy sheet and feel welcome. General training for Ushers and Greeters for the coming year will take place Saturday, August 29, at 9:30am in the church. If God is calling you to get involved with community in this capacity, please contact Mr. Joe Cralle at jacralle@gmail.com and let him know your contact information and the Mass at which you would be interested in serving.

First Friday All Night Adoration, July 3

"Let us ask ourselves this evening, adoring the Christ truly present in the Eucharist: do I let myself be transformed by Him? Do I let the Lord who gives Himself to me, guide me to come out more and more from my little fence, to get out and be not afraid to give, to share, to love Him and others? Discipleship, communion and sharing. Let us pray that participation in the Eucharist move us always to follow the Lord every day, to be instruments of communion, to share with Him and with our neighbor who we are. Then our lives will be truly fruitful. Amen." (Pope Francis, Solemnity of Corpus Christi)

All Night Adoration will take place immediately following our 8pm Mass on First Friday, July 3. Please sign up today to spend some time in silent prayer before Our Lord during Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

Act Of Consecration For Our Country

Most Holy Trinity—Our Father in Heaven, Who chose Mary as the fairest of Your daughters; Holy Spirit, Who chose Mary as Your spouse; God the Son, Who chose Mary as Your Mother—in union with Mary, we adore Your majesty and acknowledge Your supreme eternal dominion and authority.

Most Holy Trinity, we put the United States of America into the hands of Mary Immaculate in order that she may present the country to You. Through her we wish to thank You for the great resources of this land and for the freedom which has been its heritage. Through the intercession of Mary, have mercy on the Catholic Church in America. Grant us peace. Have mercy on our President and on all the officers of our government. Grant us a fruitful economy born of justice and charity. Have mercy on capital and industry and labor. Protect the family life of the nation. Guard the innocence of our children. Grant the precious gift of many religious vocations. Through the intercession of our Mother, have mercy on the sick, the poor, the tempted, sinners—on all who are in need.

Mary, Immaculate Virgin, Our Mother, Patroness of our land, we praise you and honor you and give ourselves to you. Protect us from every harm. Pray for us, that acting always according to your will and the Will of your Divine Son, we may live and die pleasing to God.
