HOLY CROSS ACADEMY

Dear Good People of Saint Mary,

Happy Easter to you! Our Lord Jesus, the fullness of life and love, conquers the worst of sin and death and carries us with him over death to eternal life. Today is the beginning of all the rest there is: let us rejoice!

First of all, I want to thank you for coming to Mass this Easter day. I know it must seem strange for some of you gathering for Easter in the Expo Center—that is, if you weren't here ten years ago when we attempted Easter Sunday at the church for the last time! Imagine: you can only have one Vigil, and we see about 7,500-8,000 people at the three Masses on Easter. Everyone would need to come, and get in and out of the parking lot 11 or 12 times on Easter morning! And, by the way, everyone likes the 10:30 Mass!

I was talking about this last week and was telling someone who had never been to our Easter Masses at "Saint Expo" how much fun it was to celebrate Mass there. They stopped, and looked at me strangely. Can Mass be fun? Well, maybe I haven't always had the greatest of word choices, but I was trying to express something maybe with a word that doesn't really exist.

Mass at Expo is remarkable. Listen to the sound of 3,500 people singing. Just look around and get a sense of how profound is the Body of Christ in Fredericksburg. So present. It is uncommon. It is also a whole lot of fun to celebrate it with you.

I'll never forget, I had been here at Saint Mary only a short time and someone sent me a not-so-nice email about how I had to stop smiling when I was distributing Eucharist at Mass! I mean, I wasn't being goofy or anything. Still, I can't imagine anything that could make us happier. Yet for them it was somehow diminishing the solemnity of the moment. But what other emotion could be more right? Isn't it true? Somewhere inside us we have been convinced that being reverent isn't something you really, down deep enjoy... there must be something wrong. It's like if the music is a little quicker and brighter, back in the back of our minds we could think that it is somehow less sacred. Is it possible that there is no other day in which we would be more joyful—in our whole lives—than today? The day when you and I, members of the Body of Christ, celebrate the resurrection of the Body of Christ.

Really, at every Mass—but especially at Easter—we should be singing our loudest, like it might be the last time we get to sing praise. It doesn't make any sense at all to hold back. And it always sounds so beautiful, because it is the voice of the Body of Christ singing to the Father.

At Easter Masses when we renew our baptismal promises: Do you believe...? The "I DO" should take the roof off of Saint Expo. Because there is nothing more important to be said at that moment, or any moment of our whole life. I say this sometimes at baptisms: "Say it like you mean it!"

It's true, sometimes our thoughts are elsewhere. Maybe we don't feel like singing, or maybe we would like a different song. As one of our former music directors told me one time (not David!) when I told them I really didn't like a particular song and would prefer we not use it, I was told, "Well, isn't it a good thing that it's not all about you?!" No one had ever told me that before. I learned a lesson, point taken. (It might have been delivered a bit more respectfully, but point taken.) When we participate, it is not I who live, it is Christ who lives in me—in a most perfect way when we gather in Jesus' name and pray, and celebrate. It fulfills us, and the by-product is our joy.

Maybe people just need permission. I give it. It is okay to be so filled with joy today because of the gift of mercy and new life and salvation brought about by Jesus' Passion, Death and Resurrection: you can sing like mad. You may have tears. You may become absolutely lost in the love of God and discover something new about yourselves and our parish family. That we are a people called through the Resurrection of Jesus to be people who celebrate life for God and for one another. And celebrate it with every ounce of our gratitude and love.

And there is no one who is excluded from this invitation to discover this remarkable, profound, uncommon presence—both of God in our lives, but also our life in God. It is where we come together to be most completely who we are, undeserving sinners though we probably remain, to learn to forgive by being forgiven, how to love by coming to know one another and how to serve by our being near him. Let this joy overflow, and transform all the days to come as we live it.

God bless you. Fr. Don

explore adult ed

Enrich your life

If you, like so many adults today, completed religious education / faith formation only through eighth grade and now find yourself frustrated with how adult life can't be served by an eighth grade concept of God or an eighth grader's approach to religion, then you understand why continuing, life-long formation is so necessary. One of the goals we set out to meet this past year at Saint Mary was to add a diversity of classes, prayer and discussion groups to enrich your life.

Last year we invited all adults to a range of classes, workshops and presentations including:

- Small Lenten Bible Study Groups
- Called and Gifted Groups and Workshop
- Lectio Divina classes
- Saturday morning Spanish Prayer and Life Workshops
- Acts of the Apostles Bible Study
- Walking with Purpose classes: "Keeping in Balance," and "Opening Your Heart"
- Catholic Divorce Survival Guide class
- Bishop Barron's 6-week series with Fr. Don on "The Mystery of God: Who God Is and Why He Matters."
- Life in the Spirit prayer gathering
- Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)
- St. Anne Sisters in Faith
- Saint Mary Young Adults

In the coming year, watch the bulletin and join us as we repeat again many of these favorites and continue to add new programs and topics to our list of offerings in Adult Education.

This year we hope to bring back other programs which were offered two years ago: The "Catholicism" series, the book study on Making Intentional Disciples, "The Mass," and others. Always watch the bulletin, especially at the end of summer and as Christmas approaches, to learn about upcoming series.

For more information, please contact Fr. Don Rooney, frrooney@stmaryfred.org or Tess Thome, tessnmike@cox.net.

rejoice this easter day

March 27, 2016

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Risen Lord Jesus,

As we rejoice on this Easter Day and throughout the fifty days of the Easter season, do not the words of the psalmist echo over and over again: "Praise the Lord, for he is good; for his mercy endures forever" (Ps 136:1)? God's mercy is revealed clearly and so intentionally in the Dying and Rising of His Only-begotten Son, sent to be our Savior and Redeemer precisely through His victory over evil, sin, suffering and eternal death.

Yes, "Jesus Christ is the Face of the Father's Mercy" (Misericordiae Vultus, 1). In His words and actions, we see revealed to us how loved we are by Our Father, how enveloped we are by His mercy. We encounter His mercy every time we receive the Sacrament of Penance, which the Risen Lord Jesus instituted and gave to His apostles and through them to His Church on that first Easter night. During the Last Supper, Jesus Christ instituted both the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist and the Sacrament of Holy Orders, these sacraments being confirmed, in a sense, by His Dying on the Cross and by His Rising on Easter. And in His new commandment to love, the Lord reveals the depths of His Father's mercy towards us and of the corresponding mission given us to be convincing heralds of this same divine mercy to everyone we encounter.

Yes, in the Dying and Rising of Jesus Christ, the mercy of Our God is so clearly revealed, so that, in turn, we become its heralds every day!

Assuring you of my prayers, especially on Easter and throughout the Easter Season, I remain

Faithfully in the Heart of Christ,

+ Paul S. Loverde

Divine Mercy Devotions

The Second Sunday of Easter, April 3, is also Divine Mercy Sunday. It was named by Pope John Paul II at the canonization of St. Maria Faustina on April 30, 2000, and then officially decreed by the Vatican. Our Parish will have Divine Mercy Devotions immediately following the 2pm Spanish Mass April 3.

Jesus revealed in various revelations to St. Faustina that it was his desire that we celebrate this special feast. "The Feast of Mercy emerged from my very depths of tenderness. It is my desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of my Mercy." (Diary, 699)

Weekly Offertory

The next Financial Report will be published in the April 3 Bulletin.

Our Second Collection on Easter Sunday is a Special Collection for Parish Development and Maintenance.

Please remember to use your Offertory Envelopes to ensure the accuracy of your end-of-year statement. The "Children's Envelope" proceeds will not be recorded on family statements.

Children's Offertory Envelopes for April

The children's charity that will benefit from offerings in April is the Operation Purple Program of the National Military Family Association. When you hear "Operation Purple Camp" you should think: Kids Serve Too! The camps are a time for having fun, making friends, and reminding military kids that they are the Nation's youngest heroes. For more information, visit their website at militaryfamily.org/kids-operation-purple/camps/.

Pro-Life Reflection

On the morning of Jesus' Resurrection, Mary Magdalene having seen the empty Tomb, ran back to the Disciples. Peter and John, having heard her story, ran toward the Tomb. And in the end, of course, all the Apostles ran into the world to announce this greatest news of history. We, too, must run to announce the Gospel of Life with vigor and to save the unborn with urgency. Lord, fill me with the vigor of Easter each day so that I may announce the victory of Life.

All Night Adoration for First Friday

All Night Adoration for First Friday on April 1 will take place immediately following the 8pm First Friday Mass. Please sign up today for All Night Adoration.

Shroud of Turin replica coming to Saint Mary

The Shroud of Turin talk and replica is coming to Saint Mary Saturday, April 16 at 1pm. Considered one of the greatest mysteries of our time, the Shroud of Turin continues to amaze and baffle scientists, doctors, historians, artists and theologians. Scientists cannot explain the source of the image which contains photographic and 3-D properties on a cloth centuries old. But is this the actual burial cloth of Jesus Christ? Bill Wingard, a speaker for the Shroud, will present the case for authenticity, and you can be the judge. Come see a full size replica of the Shroud and the photographic negative images that sparked an explosion of scientific interest and debate over a century ago which continues to today. What message does the Shroud have for each of us?

Operation Rice Bowl: Hungering For Celebration

We prayed, fasted and gave alms—and now we celebrate! Our Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl ends in our own hearts, where Jesus reigns forever. Don't forget to turn in your CRS Rice Bowl to the Parish Office by April 15. Checks should be made payable to St. Mary Catholic Church with "Rice Bowl" in the memo line.

LITURGY of the WORD

FIRST READING

Acts of the Apostles 10:34, 37-43

*proclaimed in English
at the 12:30 Mass*

En aquellos días, Pedro tomó la palabra y dijo: “Ya saben ustedes lo sucedido en toda Judea, que tuvo principio en Galilea, después del bautismo predicado por Juan: cómo Dios unigó con el poder del Espíritu Santo a Jesús de Nazaret y cómo éste pasó haciendo el bien, sanando a todos los oprimidos por el diablo, porque Dios estaba con él. Nosotros somos testigos de cuanto él hizo en Judea y en Jerusalén. La mataron colgándolo de la cruz, pero Dios lo resucitó al tercer día y le concedió verlo, no a todo el pueblo, sino únicamente a los testigos que él, de antemano, había escogido: a nosotros, que hemos comido y bebido con él después de que resucitó de entre los muertos. Él nos mandó predicar al pueblo y dar testimonio de que Dios lo ha constituido juez de vivos y muertos. El testimonio de los profetas es unánime: que cuantos creen en él reciben, por su medio, el perdón de los pecados”.

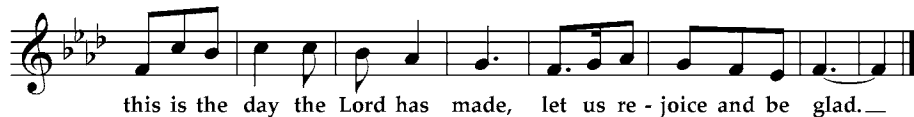

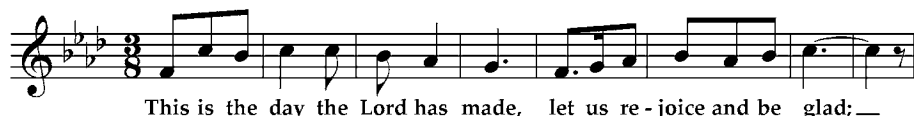

The word of the Lord.

- Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 118(117):1-2, 16-17, 22-23

Mass at 8:00 & 10:15

Mass at 12:30

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,
for his mercy endures forever.
Let the house of Israel say,
“His mercy endures forever.”

The right hand of the Lord has struck with power;
the right hand of the Lord is exalted.
I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the Lord.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
By the Lord has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.

Den gracias al Señor porque es bueno, porque es eterna su misericordia.
Diga la casa de Israel:
eterna es su misericordia.

La diestra del Señor es poderosa,
la diestra del Señor es excelsa.
No he de morir, viviré
para contar las hazañas del Señor.

La piedra que desecharon los arquitectos,
es ahora la piedra angular.
Es el Señor quien lo ha hecho,
ha sido un milagro patente.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 5:6b-8

*proclaimed in Spanish
at the 12:30 Mass*

Brothers and sisters: Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough? Clear out the old yeast, so that you may become a fresh batch of dough, inasmuch as you are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed. Therefore, let us celebrate the feast, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Palabra de Dios.

- Te alabamos Señor.

SEQUENCE

English translation
by Peter J. Scagnelli.

Cantor or choir, then all repeat

Christians praise the Paschal Victim
Offer thankful sacrifice.
Christ the Lamb has saved the sheep;
Christ the Just One paid the price,
Reconciling sinners to the Father. Refrain.

Death and Life fought bitterly
For this wondrous victory;
The Lord of life who died
Reigns glorified! Refrain.

O Mary, come and say
What you saw at break of day.
"The empty tomb of my living Lord!
I saw Christ Jesus risen, and adored!"
Bright angels testified,
Shroud and grave-cloths side by side!
"Yes, Christ my hope rose gloriously.
He goes before you into Galilee." Refrain.
Share the good news, sing joyfully:
His death is victory!
Lord Jesus, victor King, show us mercy. Refrain.

*Ofrezcan los cristianos ofrendas de alabanza a gloria de la Víctima propicia de la Pascua.
Cordero sin pecado que a las ovejas salva, a Dios y a los culpables unió con nueva alianza.
Lucharon vida y muerte en singular batalla y, muerto el que es vida, triunfante se levanta.
"¿Qué has visto de camino, María [Magdalena], en la mañana?"
"A mi Señor glorioso, la tumba abandonada, los ángeles testigos, sudarios y mortaja.
¡Resucitó de veras mi amor y mi esperanza!
Venid a Galilea, allí el Señor aguarda; allí veréis los suyos la gloria de la Pascua".
Primicia de los muertos, sabemos por tu gracia que estás resucitado; la muerte en ti no manda.
Rey vencedor, apiádate de la miseria humana y da a tus fieles parte en tu victoria santa.*

ALLELUIA cf. 1 Corinthians 5:7b-8a

Christ, our Paschal Lamb, has been sacrificed;
let us feast then with joy in the Lord.

Ha sido inmolada nuestra víctima pascual: Cristo.
Celebremos, pues, la Pascua.

UNIVERSAL
PRAYER
(GENERAL INTERCESSIONS)

Response:

Lord, hear our prayer; De-us ex-au-di nos; Se-ñor, es-cú-cha - nos.

On this most holy day, let us pray with one mind and heart that the joy of Easter may be shared by all the world.

That the joy of the Risen Christ may inspire our parish community to proclaim the good news to all. We pray to the Lord...

That the peace of the Risen Christ may reign among the nations and peoples of the world, bring an end to violence and lead all to work together to uphold the sacred dignity of all men, women and children. We pray...

That the hope of the Risen Christ may console the troubled, reconcile those who are estranged and alienated, and bring comfort to all those who suffer from war or repression in the troubled countries of the world. We pray...

For the newly baptized and confirmed, may they walk always with Christ in the newness of life. We pray...

For the protection of all who serve in the military or public service, that they may be instruments of peace and safety throughout the world. We pray...

That the sick and the infirm might experience the healing power of the Spirit of the Risen Christ. We pray...

That the light of the Risen Christ may shine on the souls of all our deceased relatives and friends. We pray...

Father of life, Author of love, in raising your Son from the grave all creation has been reborn. May the life and love of the paschal mystery that we celebrate today be a constant and lasting reality in our lives. We ask this through Christ, our Risen Lord. - Amen.

En este día santísimo, elevemos nuestra oración común para que la alegría pascual se extienda por todo el mundo.

Para que la alegría del Cristo Resucitado inspire a nuestra comunidad parroquial a proclamar las buenas nuevas a todos. Roguemos al Señor.

Para que la paz del Cristo Resucitado reine entre las naciones y pueblos de todo el mundo, y que los guíe a trabajar juntos en el apoyo de la dignidad sagrada de todos los hombres, mujeres y niños. Roguemos...

Para que la esperanza del Cristo Resucitado consuele a todos los que tienen problemas, a los que se sienten extraños o enajenados, y conforte a los que sufren por la guerra en los países turbulentos del mundo. Roguemos...

Por los nuevos bautizados y confirmados, para que ellos puedan caminar siempre con Cristo en la novedad de la vida. Roguemos...

Para que sean protegidos, los que trabajan como militares y siervos públicos, para ser instrumentos de paz y seguridad in todas partes del mundo. Roguemos...

Para que los enfermos y los débiles puedan experimentar el poder sanador del Espíritu del Cristo Resucitado. Roguemos...

Para que la luz del Cristo Resucitado pueda brillar en las almas de nuestros familiares y amigos que han fallecido. Roguemos...

Padre de la vida, Autor del amor, al levantar a su Hijo de la tumba toda creación ha nacido de nuevo. Que la vida y el amor del misterio pascual que celebramos este día sea una realidad constante y permanente en nuestra vida. Por Jesucristo nuestro Señor resucitado. Por Jesucristo nuestro Señor. - Amén.

Verses/Estrofas Choir/Coro

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. Cada vida rota
forma este cuerpo,
y en esta copa
nos unimos todos. | 1. Every life, though broken, forms part of the Body;
through the words here spoken
we relive the story. |
| 2. Come, all you who thirst and hunger, to this meal of unity;
come be filled by God's own favor
so that others we may feed. | 2. Vengan todos al banquete
y en la mesa de unidad, que en Cristo se alimenten
y conozcan su bondad. |

Verses/Estrofas
Choir/Coro

|---|--|
| 3. Vidas rotas, pan partido,
alimento en el camino;
Sangre del amor divino
Derramada en este vino. | 3. Broken lives in broken bread on this journey healed and fed; Blood of Christ's pure love divine
now poured out in earthly wine. |
| 4. Share the passion of the Lord and raise the cross of victory.
Lay your life down for your friend;
no greater love is there than this. | 4. Cristo a la cruz nos llama a Compartir de su passion.
Por su amigo den su vida;
arriesguen todo por amor. |
| 5. Pan del cielo para todos
los que sufren en la vida:
danos fuerza y aliento
para proclamar el Reino. | 5. Bread of life for all who suffer, bread of heav'n for our salvation.
Strengthen and sustain us, Lord,
that we may proclaim your kingdom. |
| 6. Through this meal of lasting peace, to humble service we are called;
With great love and charity,
Christ's sacrifice we now recall. | 6. Pan de paz y de amistad,
Cristo mismo servirá.
Compartir en caridad
y su memoria celebrar. |
