and David Uschold, organ

Friday, February 22, 2019 ~ 8:00 p.m.

Concerts at St. Mary welcomes international performing artist Emily Mason as she performs an evening of music for harp. Known for her original arrangements of orchestral, piano and ensemble music for harp, Ms. Mason will present a varied and interesting program. In addition to her solo performances, Ms. Mason will be joined by internationally-acclaimed Philippine-born American tenor Allan Palacios Chan and St. Mary organist David Uschold.

WASHINGTON'S CAMERATA

Friday, May 10, 2019 ~ 8:00 p.m.

Washington's Camerata, established in 2009, is a period instrument ensemble dedicated to the music of the 17th and 18th centuries. Founding flutists Kelly Kazik and Sarah McIver achieve innovative programming through the ensemble's unique instrumentation to bring charming and rarely heard music back to life. In addition to performances throughout the Mid-Atlantic Region, Washington's Camerata is currently in residence at the historic St. George's Episcopal Church in Fredericksburg, VA, where the ensemble performs in conjunction with the popular chamber music series, Beautiful Music in a Beautiful Space. From 2009 to 2012, Washington's Camerata had the unique privilege to serve artists-in-residence for the Washington Parish at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Oak Grove. Washington Parish was founded by the Washington, Monroe and Lee families.

All concert events at St. Mary are free and open to the public. A free-will offering will be taken to support current and future programming.
