from our pastor pax et bonum

Dear Folks,
From the depth of my soul, I thank you for your prayers this week at my mother's unexpected passing.

Your prayers have been a great support for my father and siblings. Mom always believed that if you married into the Mosimann family, your whole family is part of the deal! She often told me, "you are a father now, and your first responsibility is your parish family."

Parish Family, thank you for your love and prayers for the repose of her soul.

pax et bonum,

Fr Mosimann

Barbara Jean Mosimann

August 20, 1932- June 16, 2019

Wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, lover of Christ and His Catholic Church -- this was Barbara Jean Mosimann.

Jean was born in Johnstown, PA where she was raised with her five siblings, attending the local Slovak parish. Her maternal grandmother played an instrumental role in Jean's faith development -- one of her earliest memories is of her 'Bubba' praying the rosary constantly in her native Slovak tongue.

Jean was a devoted wife, married to her wonderful husband Jim for almost 66 years. Jean was the mother of 8 children, grandmother of 23 and great-grandmother of 15, who was committed to creating a happy childhood for her children and happy memories for all her family. From her youth, Jean was steadfast in her faith -- her faith in Jesus Christ, through the Catholic Church. She never shied away from sharing this faith -- with her family, friends, anyone and everyone she met.

Jean had a rich prayer life, guided by the Holy Spirit, and through this Holy Spirit she was able to live her faith actively. She believed and taught her family that God is real and present in every aspect of their lives -- and to expect miracles, healing, prophesy, and God's word and direction.

Jean carried the concerns, joys, and sufferings of her family and others deeply in her heart. She brought these to her Lord in constant prayer, up until the moment of her death. She loved unconditionally, reveled in joys, shared in sorrows, and always prayed.

Jean showed a selfless love in her devotion to the needs of her husband and children, following the model of our heavenly mother, Mary. She was blessed with the ability to make God real and present to those around her and knew that she was deeply loved by Him.

She is survived by her husband Jim, her brother Joseph Kokoruda, her children -- Theresa, Mary, Michelle, Thomas, Kateri, Joseph, John, and Madeleine -- 23 grandchildren, and 15 great-grandchildren. Jean was pre-deceased by her sisters, Mary-Lou, Patricia, Dorothy, and by her brother Robert.

All of us, gazing with un-veiled face on the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, as from the Lord who is the Spirit.

Congratulations Class of 2019!

As our school year drew to a close, we congratulated our preschoolers who completed their year and are now proud to be kindergartners. It is an exciting time for these energetic five-year-olds. This year's kindergarten class celebrated the end of their year and are now proud to be First Graders! They have mastered the kindergarten curriculum and eagerly await what lies ahead in first grade.

Each year we have to say good-bye to our 8th graders as they graduate and move on to high school. We applaud their accomplishments – scholarships, presidential academic awards, service and school spirit awards, to name a few. It is our opportunity to celebrate their gifts and their dreams. We are always sorry to see them leave us but excited for the them as they move into the greater challenges of high school and all that lies before them. Congratulations, Class of 2019, and best wishes for the future. You will always be a cherished part of our Holy Cross Academy family!

Saint Mary Preschool and Holy Cross Academy are a wonderful place to learn and grow. Stop in some time to see us or give us a call at 540-286-1600 and we will tell you all about our wonderful parish school where we learn each day to Live Jesus and to love and care for one another.

The Body and Blood of Christ

When we offer bread and wine at Mass, we thank God for his care, and we offer God our lives. Through the Priest, God changes our gifts and gives them back as Jesus. God feeds and strengthens us to love and be holy. The Eucharist makes us one with God and one another. Though it looks like bread and wine, the Eucharist is truly the Body and Blood of Christ.

Catechists Needed

St. Mary's has over 800 children in Faith Formation classes. Catechists are needed to teach, mentor, guide, help, instruct, direct, inspire, lead, model, hope, educate, manage, catechize, nurture, encourage, interact, coach and pray with the children.

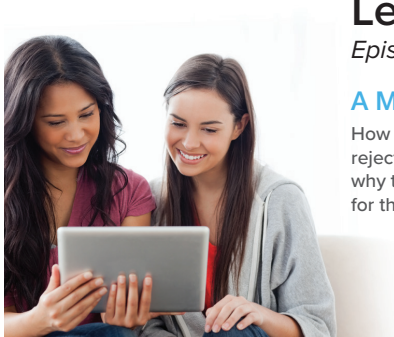

Registration for Religious Education classes is taking place in the Parish Office. Parents are reminded that students must register for classes each year.

parish life get involved

Attention All Parish Organizations

Your calendar for the use of parish facilities from September 2019 to August 2020 should be submitted to Elaine in the Parish Office no later than July 31. Please make sure you submit your request to Elaine, in writing, as soon as possible, either by regular mail, or by email to estanislawski@stmaryfred.org. In setting up your schedule, please note that evening activities cannot be scheduled before 8pm Monday through Wednesday from September through May, due to Religious Education classes in the Parish Life Center and the John Paul II House. Thank you.

Attention Class of 2019

The Associates of St. John Bosco will be hosting four College Nights throughout the Arlington Diocese for graduated high schoolers headed to college in the fall. All events will be from 7-9pm:

July 1 - All Saints, Manassas

July 17 - Basilica of St. Mary, Alexandria

July 24 - St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception

The purpose of these free events is to help students keep their faith while transitioning into college. Catholic college students from George Mason, Mary Washington, UVA, Virginia Tech, William & Mary and others will be in attendance to meet students and share their experiences of being a Catholic college student. It's a wonderful chance to meet fellow peers going to your school before even stepping foot onto campus! Free dinner with registration and the chance to win door prizes! Student registration can be found by visiting asjb.org. Registration is limited to 50 students per night.

Verso l'Alto

Come join fellow Catholic Young Adults (18-39) at the church of St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception in Fredericksburg every Wednesday night at 7:30pm in the library. Our purpose is to bring people closer to the faith in holy friendships.

School Dressing Days

Please consider donating items for local children in need of assistance. St. Mary's is collecting new clothing in all sizes for boys and girls in grades K-12. Items such as; jeans, joggers, leggings, backpacks, socks and underwear. Also gently used winter coats. Please drop off your items to HCA from June 2-11. Consider helping out at the Dressing Days event July 26-27. To volunteer check out Sign-Up Genius at tinyurl.com/SDD2019 or contact Jaye Anastasio 540-412-1622.

Facing Serious Illness Retreat

This retreat offers a unique opportunity for persons who face serious physical illness to come away for a weekend of spiritual renewal. Come celebrate life and the love of our Lord in a beautiful and comfortable place among caring people. There will be times of prayers, talks by priest, celebration of the liturgy, quiet time and ample rest. The retreat begins on a Friday afternoon and end Sunday with a closing Mass. The retreat is staffed by a team of caring health professionals who are available to you throughout the weekend to ensure your medical needs are met. There will be experienced physicians and nurses, along with priests, helpers and volunteers. The retreat is open to men and women. The dates are July 12-14 and October 4-6. It is held at the San Damiano Spiritual Life Center in White Post, Va. There is no cost to you for the retreat. For information please email your information to Retreat@ccda.net. Include your: Name, Phone number, and Available times to take a call. Please put July (or October) Seriously Ill Retreat in the Memo line. You can also call (703) 335-2779 option 14 and leave the information on Catholic Charities message line. A nurse from the retreat team will be in contact with you about your care needs and the application process. If you are registering for a friend or family member, the nurse will need to speak directly with the retreatant during the application phone call.

For those interested there are openings available for nursing volunteers. Email or call as listed above. If you have questions, call Tammie Chute 540-370-6343.

Seven Sisters Apostolate: Join Us in Prayer for Our Priests

Do you have a heart for our priests? Would you like to offer them support and encouragement in their ministry? Perhaps God is calling you to join us in the Seven Sisters Apostolate, a newly formed ministry at St. Mary's that is part of an international movement of prayer for priests and bishops. Permanent members commit to a Holy Hour one day a week for the needs and intentions of one of our St. Mary's priests or Bishop Burbidge. All days of the week are currently available, and the Holy Hour can be completed at any time of the day or night - a consistent hour on the assigned day is not required! The commitment is for one year and can be renewed if desired. Substitutes are also needed to fill in when a permanent adorer is unavailable. More information can be found at seven-sistersapostolate.org. Please contact Kara Horne at 202.255.3178 or karahorne@gmail.com.

parish life happenings

Want to Grow in Holiness, But Too Busy?

If you're looking for a simple way to be spiritually renewed, develop a deeper relationship with Our Merciful Savior, and grow in holiness, join us for 33 Days to Morning Glory Small Group Retreat on Tuesdays after 9am mass at the Courtyard Meeting Room starting on July 9 as we begin a 33-day preparation for Marian Consecration. Our consecration day will be on August 15th, the feast of The Assumption. For six weeks, we'll individually read about and reflect on four great Marian giants: St. Louis de Montfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Teresa of Kolkata, and Pope St. John Paul II. They'll teach us the secrets to drawing closer to the Heart of Jesus through the Heart of Mary. In our weekly meetings, we'll share our insights within our small group and then watch a 30-minute video by popular author and speaker, Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC who will bring our individual reflections and group experience into a clear and liveable focus.

Cost of the participant packet and book is $20. Call or sign up at the parish office at 540-373-6491 to register. For more information contact Rachel Chaves at raziechaves@yahoo.com or 540-621-9720.

Oblate Sisters, Thank You

On Sunday, June 9, St. Mary parishioners and Holy Cross Academy students, parents and alumni joined together to thank the Oblate Sisters for their gift of self to our children and parish families for the past 21 years. We are so grateful to all the sisters who have served so beautifully in our parish and school over the years and who have taught us "To see Jesus in every person and in every situation." May God bless you as you continue your mission to teach and serve through Christ!

Fr. Mosimann presenting a check on behalf of the St. Mary Parishioners for $5,000 to the Oblate Sister's African Missions with his warmest and heartfelt thanks.

Dear Folks of St. Mary's,

Well shoot. It's no fun saying goodbye. You guys have been a great family to me. I came here nervous as heck just celebrating daily Mass (someone reminded me recently of my first daily Masses lasting 45 minutes – yikes! and sorry...). I will never forget the first time I called up a couple to set an appointment for marriage prep; it was hard to muster the confidence, with all the questions that I had about how it would go. But the folks here have been supportive and kind and very understanding, with all of my novice blunders, as well as some of my shortcomings. For that, I am eternally grateful. St. Mary's is a very welcoming place for new priests... you guys seem to be pro's at it. That must be why they send all the new guys!

It is a tremendous thing to be a Priest. It means being an instrument for Jesus Christ, exercising His priesthood in the Sacraments, exercising His leadership in listening to His people, providing guidance, encouraging the faithful to exercise their own leadership, and in serving the community, while also exercising His role of prophet, both from the ambo at Mass and at many other opportunities. None of that would be possible without the love and support and openness of the good people here, nor would it be as enjoyable as it has been.

I was thinking of some of the things I have been able to do here. First and foremost, I'd say, St. Mary's has been a great place to learn the in's and out's of a large parish with lots of activities, lots of ministries, a school, a big hospital, and a rectory with 4 priests. It was also a great place to learn and hone some of the skills needed in priestly ministry – preaching (thanks to those on my email list who provided feedback!), being present and consoling grieving families, providing counseling, the art of dialogue, inviting myself over for dinner, weddings, baptisms, fielding random questions after Mass while shaking hands, etc. etc. Some of the memories I am most fond of would be... ugly sweaters with the Youth Group, getting positive feedback from homilies (and possibly even lives changed, if the claims are true), going to Banica, Date Night, going to WorkCamp, countless funerals of profound meaning, countless weddings of tremendous joy, moments of immeasurable grace in the confessional, working with the Hispanic Community (I could really talk endlessly about how much of a grace that has been and how much I really love that work), Quinceañeras, Our Lady of Guadalupe at 4am in the church and Our Lady of Guadalupe with a fiesta at 7pm at HCA, the big final Posadas celebration last year, great conversations and great meals with families and... actually, I could probably go on and on, but I think the bulletin editor is already going to have a field day editing this down to size. Thank you so much to everyone who has been a part of very, very warm memories.

God Bless,

Fr. Colin

Wishing Fr. Colin Farewell

All are welcome to thank and wish Fr. Colin a warm Farewell on Monday, June 24 from 5-8pm in the Parish Life Center. We will be hosting a yummy dessert reception!

religious freedom week

WEEK

June 22–29

In the face of our country's challenges, and challenges within the Church herself, Catholics find strength in the hope of Jesus Christ. We want to share that hope with everyone.

Religious freedom gives us the space to carry out the mission that Jesus has entrusted to the Church. Religious freedom means that Catholics, and all people of goodwill, are free to seek the truth and to live in accordance with that truth, and so to strengthen our common life as a nation.

Beginning June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops celebrates Religious Freedom Week. In the midst of our current challenges, join us as we seek the kingdom and find Strength in Hope.

Learn more at www.usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek

A photograph of a large wooden cross in a field at sunset. The sky is filled with orange and yellow clouds. In the foreground, the silhouettes of several people are visible, looking towards the cross. The text is overlaid on the image.

"In the pilgrimage of this life, hidden with Christ in God and free from enslavement to wealth, they aspire to those riches which remain forever and generously dedicate themselves wholly to the advancement of the kingdom of God and to the reform and improvement of the temporal order in a Christian spirit. Among the trials of this life they find strength in hope, convinced that 'the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us' (Rom. 8:18)."

Peter's Pence Collection

2019 Collection for the Works of the Holy Father

"Be a Witness of Charity"

"A little mercy makes the world less cold and more just." —Pope Francis, Angelus, March 17, 2013

Next week, we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. For more information, visit usccb.org/peters-pence.

Thank you for standing in solidarity with the Holy See with your generosity. Please continue to pray for our brothers and sisters in faith who are facing adversity.

The Peter's Pence Collection derives its name from an ancient custom. In ninth century England, King Alfred the Great collected money – "pence" or pennies – from landowners as financial support for the Pope. Today, the Peter's Pence Collection supports the Pope's charitable work by giving the Holy Father the means to provide essential assistance.

Faith Direct

The Lord is risen! As Christ's disciples, we are called to go forth and spread the good news of His Resurrection. Our parish's many ministries are examples of how many of you answer that call. Our ministries require not only gifts of time and talent, but also of financial help. Please prayerfully consider supporting St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception with electronic donations through Faith Direct. Signing up is easy! Visit faithdirect.net and use our parish code of VA635 or call 1-866-507-8757. Thank you for your continued support of our parish family!

June Children's Charity

Our Children's Offertory Contributions for the month of June will be donated to Hope House, which was established in 1987 to serve homeless women and their children from the City of Fredericksburg, and the counties of Stafford, Spotsylvania, Caroline, and King George. Hope House is a non-profit, 501(c)3, transitional facility where homeless women and their children can stay up to two years. Hope House provides safe housing and the opportunities to transition to successful, independent living. Hope House also provides a childcare program that demonstrates excellence in childcare and ensures academic success. For more information, visit their website at hopehouseva.org.

Al Anon Surviving the Weekend Group

For those who have been affected by someone else's drinking, and members come together to learn a better way of life and how to find happiness. Especially at this time of year, it's important to know that you are not alone and there is help. There is an Al Anon meeting every Saturday at 10am in Room 204 of St. Mary's Parish Life Center.

Nar Anon Support Available

Nar Anon is a program that offers support to family members and friends of loved ones struggling with substance abuse. All information and discussion is non-judgemental, informative and strictly confidential. Our meetings are in Room 100 in the Parish Life Center on Thursday from 7-8pm and are open to the community at large. Contact Cathy at 703-201-8821, burgh757@gmail.com or Wayne at 540-840-5230.

* Indicates Mass at Holy Cross Academy

Please remember that Mass intentions may be requested at the parish office for any remaining Masses of the year. If dates are no longer available for the date you desire, you are welcome to request an intention that is "unscheduled," and one of the priests will gladly celebrate Mass for your intention at an extra Mass during the week or as a concelebrant.
