from our pastor pax et bonum

Dear Folks,

Corpus Christi. The feast of the Body and Blood of Christ.
This is why I am Catholic.
This is why I have given my life to Him.
This is why we put up with bad homilies.
This is why we attend Mass surrounded by caution tape.
This is why we love crying babies in church.
This is why girls dress up as brides for 1st communion.
This is why boys dress up as grooms for 1st communion.
This is why Jesus gave us the priesthood.
This is why priests risk infection to give you communion.
This is why you risk infection coming to Mass.
This is why Jesus founded His Church.
This is how Jesus gives us His life.
This is how we find strength to be His disciples.
This is how you are united to God.
This is how you are healed of infirmities.
This is how you foretaste heaven.
This is the source of our faith.
This is the summit of our faith.
This is Jesus.
Nothing else matters.

Pax et bonum,

Fr Mosimann

End of Year Celebrations

Our unprecedented 2019-20 school year ended on a high note as we welcomed our faculty, families and students back to campus for a drive-thru book/supply exchange. It was so uplifting to be together again in person after so many months of virtual interactions.

We also used the occasion to celebrate our Best of the Burg win and recognize our Kindergarteners. Our cafeteria staff passed out ice cream to some very happy (albeit masked) faces. What better way to kick off summer than to eat some yummy ice cream and reconnect with old friends?

We wish our families a safe and relaxing summer break. You have earned it! May God bless you and keep you safe until we are together again next school year!

Registration for 2020-21

HCA is a National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence offering a strong academic program, daily religious instruction, character formation, numerous extracurricular opportunities, a variety of music and art programs, and so much more. Please email Anne Carroll at acarroll@holycrossweb.com to learn how Holy Cross Academy can be a blessing for your family! Our preschool is also enrolling for the fall. mass readings

Reading 1DT 8:2-3, 14B-16A

Moses said to the people:

"Remember how for forty years now the LORD, your God, has directed all your journeying in the desert, so as to test you by affliction and find out whether or not it was your intention to keep his commandments. He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger, and then fed you with manna, a food unknown to you and your fathers, in order to show you that not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD.

"Do not forget the LORD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery; who guided you through the vast and terrible desert with its saraph serpents and scorpions, its parched and waterless ground; who brought forth water for you from the flinty rock and fed you in the desert with manna, a food unknown to your fathers."

Responsorial Psalm PS 147:12-13, 14-15, 19-20

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

Glorify the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise your God, O Zion. For he has strengthened the bars of your gates; he has blessed your children within you.

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

He has granted peace in your borders; with the best of wheat he fills you. He sends forth his command to the earth; swiftly runs his word!

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

He has proclaimed his word to Jacob, his statutes and his ordinances to Israel. He has not done thus for any other nation; his ordinances he has not made known to them. Alleluia.

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

Reading 21 COR 10:16-17

Brothers and sisters:
The cup of blessing that we bless,
is it not a participation in the blood of Christ?
The bread that we break,
is it not a participation in the body of Christ?
Because the loaf of bread is one,
we, though many, are one body,
for we all partake of the one loaf.

Sequence

Lauda Sion

Laud, O Zion, your salvation,
Laud with hymns of exultation,
Christ, your king and shepherd true:

Bring him all the praise you know,
He is more than you bestow.
Never can you reach his due.

Special theme for glad thanksgiving
Is the quick'ning and the living
Bread today before you set:

From his hands of old partaken,
As we know, by faith unshaken,
Where the Twelve at supper met.

Full and clear ring out your chanting,
Joy nor sweetest grace be wanting,
From your heart let praises burst:

For today the feast is holden,
When the institution olden
Of that supper was rehearsed.

Here the new law's new oblation,
By the new king's revelation,
Ends the form of ancient rite:

Now the new the old effaces,
Truth away the shadow chases,
Light dispels the gloom of night.

What he did at supper seated,
Christ ordained to be repeated,
His memorial ne'er to cease:

And his rule for guidance taking,
Bread and wine we hallow, making
Thus our sacrifice of peace.

This the truth each Christian learns,
Bread into his flesh he turns,
To his precious blood the wine:

Sight has fail'd, nor thought conceives,
But a dauntless faith believes,
Resting on a pow'r divine.

Here beneath these signs are hidden
Priceless things to sense forbidden;
Signs, not things are all we see:

corpus christi

mass readings

Blood is poured and flesh is broken,
Yet in either wondrous token
Christ entire we know to be.

Whoso of this food partakes,
Does not rend the Lord nor breaks;
Christ is whole to all that taste:

Thousands are, as one, receivers,
One, as thousands of believers,
Eats of him who cannot waste.

Bad and good the feast are sharing,
Of what divers dooms preparing,
Endless death, or endless life.

Life to these, to those damnation,
See how like participation
Is with unlike issues rife.

When the sacrament is broken,
Doubt not, but believe 'tis spoken,
That each sever'd outward token doth the very whole contain.

Nought the precious gift divides,
Breaking but the sign betides
Jesus still the same abides, still unbroken does remain.

Lo! the angel's food is given
To the pilgrim who has striven;
see the children's bread from heaven,
which on dogs may not be spent.

Truth the ancient types fulfilling,
Isaac bound, a victim willing,
Paschal lamb, its lifeblood spilling, manna to the fathers sent.

Very bread, good shepherd, tend us,
Jesu, of your love befriend us,
You refresh us, you defend us,
Your eternal goodness send us
In the land of life to see.

You who all things can and know,
Who on earth such food bestow,
Grant us with your saints, though lowest,
Where the heav'nly feast you show,
Fellow heirs and guests to be. Amen. Alleluia.

Alleluia JN 6:51

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live forever.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel JN 6:51-58

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds:

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven;
whoever eats this bread will live forever;
and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying,
"How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

Jesus said to them,

"Amen, amen, I say to you,

unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you.

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood
has eternal life,

and I will raise him on the last day.

For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood
remains in me and I in him.

Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father,

so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me.

This is the bread that came down from heaven.

Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died,
whoever eats this bread will live forever."

The Blessed Sacrament

We call the Eucharist: the Blessed Sacrament" because it is the real presence of Jesus among us under the appearance of bread and wine. Today's feast celebrates the gift of this sacrament, the Body and Blood of Christ. We believe that the Blessed Sacrament is not an object or thing, but a person. Jesus is truly there, even if we cannot see him in human form. Through the Eucharist, Jesus continues to give us his life and love.

Word of the Week: Eucharist

The Sacrament of the Eucharist. "The inexhaustible richness of this sacrament is expressed in the in the different names we give it. Each name evokes certain aspects of it. It is called:

Eucharist, because it is an action of thanksgiving to God. The Greek words eucharistien and eulogein recall the Jewish blessings that proclaim – especially during a meal – God's works: creation, redemption, and sanctification." "Catechism of the Catholic Church" 1328

Additional Phase 2 Information

A limited Mass schedule will return to St Mary's Church this weekend. Sign-ups will NOT be required, Social distancing and masks ARE required to attend ALL Masses.

FOR MASSES AT HOLY CROSS ACADEMY GOING FORWARD, FOR THOSE AT RISK, WE WILL BE CONTINUING TO VERY STRICTLY ENFORCE MASKS AND AT HOLY CROSS COMMUNION WILL ONLY BE OFFERED IN THE HAND, SO IF YOU WANT TO COME TO MASS BUT WANT TO BE EXTRA CAUTIOUS, PLEASE CONSIDER HOLY CROSS ACADEMY.

The church and Holy Cross Academy will be sanitized after every Sunday Mass. This means when Mass is over, please leave promptly so the cleaners can wipe down all the surfaces. Ushers will still be giving directions and seating people, please continue to give them respect and comply with their requests. Please remember to leave 6 feet between people coming in and leaving Mass. Because of the continued need for social distancing, the seating capacity will be greatly reduced. No standing room will be provided. Please arrive early.

Note for our Seniors

During this time of caution, we are taking extra care of our over 65 population. If you are in need of assistance (picking up items at the store, errands etc) please do not hesitate to call the office at 540-373-6491 or email edoyle@stmaryfred.org. We have parishioners standing by to assist you. God bless you and continued prayers for your safety and health.

Usher's Needed at All Masses

Usher's Needed at All Masses Many of our ushers are in the over 65 or "vulnerable" population and we want to protect and encourage them to stay home at this time. We need help from our younger folks who feel comfortable performing the tasks of safely guiding our parishioners. If you can help, please sign-up at tinyurl.com/stmaryushers

St. Mary Welcomes Two Seminarians!

Join us in welcoming Robert Renner & Daniel Reuwer! They will be spending the summer months here at St. Mary's. You will see them assisting at Mass and throughout the campus. One of their primary tasks is to spend time learning Spanish. So, when you see them make certain to say Hola and Bienvenidos!

Daniel Reuwer

Theology II
St. Charles Borromeo Seminary
Belmont Abbey College
St. William of York Parish

What did you do prior to entering seminary?

Taught middle school religion and social studies at St. William of York Catholic School.

What influenced your decision to apply for seminary entrance?

Spending a lot of time with families in a parochial environment really increased a desire in me to find deeper ways to serve the people of our diocese.

Why do you want to be a priest?

I want to bring Christ to His people, both through His infinite mercy and the gift of His most precious Body and Blood.

What are your favorite pastimes?

Sports, both watching and playing, as well as watching movies.

What is your favorite quote?

"Let nothing disturb thee, Nothing affright thee; All things are passing; God never changeth." (St. Theresa of Avila)

Who is your favorite Saint and why?

My favorite Saint is probably St. Peter. He was far from perfect while here on earth, and yet strove constantly to better himself. He often let his emotions get in the way of completely surrendering himself to God's will, and yet in the long run Christ was able to utilize Him to create His everlasting Church here on earth. He gives me hope that Christ will be able to use someone as broken as me for great things as well.

What advice would you give to a young man thinking about the seminary?

I would tell them that even the slightest urge to enter the seminary, to entertain living the life of a priest, is unnatural, and placed there by God. Most people never feel this at all. Therefore, if you do, you owe it to yourself to explore it more deeply.

Robert Renner

Theology II
Mount St. Mary's Seminary
University of Mary Washington
Holy Spirit Parish

What did you do prior to entering seminary?

I studied geography at the University of Mary Washington and spent my summers working as a backcountry guide.

What influenced your decision to apply for seminary entrance?

I want to be the best man I can be. If God is everything we profess, then He has a plan for how each of us is supposed to live life to the full. After making myself vulnerable in my relationship with Him and opening myself up to His love, I then began to discern what His plan for my life could be. After the suggestion and daily priestly witness of Fr. Vacarro, I began to discern entering the seminary.

Why do you want to be a priest?

I want to be a priest because that is what I have so far discerned my vocation to be. I want to give all of myself and share Christ's love with all. If the mission of every Christian is to make disciples, what better way to do that than as mediator of that sacramental grace. By living out my vocation I will not only be best glorifying God but happiest.

What are your favorite pastimes?

I like to hike, backpack, climb, play soccer and canoe. God created us a great playground and I like to use it.

What is your favorite quote?

" " - St. Joseph

Who is your favorite Saint and why?

Pope Saint John Paul II because I share his love of the outdoors and love to see Christ in the beauty of the natural world. Going into the backcountry we can encounter Christ in a refreshing way, and grow in relationship with Him by living in his artwork away from the distractions and lies that help us lose our identity in Christ.

What advice would you give to a young man thinking about the seminary?

Know that first we have a universal vocation to holiness. There is absolutely nothing but yourself that is preventing you from living out prayer and heroic virtue. Then, give the seminary a visit and talk with some seminarians and Fr Jaffe. Discernment is active; while living out holiness take steps to understand what God might have in store for you.

Choose Life Reflection

In the midst of the abortion tragedy, the Church does not point fingers of condemnation. Rather, the Church extends hands of compassion and help to lift up out of despair those who are tempted to abort their children. The Church informs her people of the many alternatives to abortion and says, "I am with you and will enable you to say 'yes' to life." Lord, may we reach out to those who are tempted to abort because they feel alone, that they may know that we and You are with them.

Children's Charity for June

Our Children's Offertory Contributions for the month of June will be donated to Hope House, which was established in 1987 to serve homeless women and their children from the City of Fredericksburg, and the counties of Stafford, Spotsylvania, Caroline, and King George. Hope House is a non-profit, 501(c)3, transitional facility where homeless women and their children can stay up to two years. Hope House provides safe housing and the opportunities to transition to successful, independent living. Hope House also provides a childcare program that demonstrates excellence in childcare and ensures academic success. For more information, visit their website at hopehouseva.org.

Bimonthly Envelope Change for Building Fund

Starting with your May/June contribution envelopes, you will notice a change. The building fund envelope was changed to "Debt Reduction" rather than "Building Fund", since all contributions made are actually used to help pay the $2,000,000 mortgage remaining from capital improvements to the Church, Parish Office and Rectory ten years ago, as well as other capital expenditures through June of 2016. We hope that this change will help to clarify that all contributions are used to pay down this debt, rather than saving for future capital improvements.

Father's Day Novena

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the best way to remember your father, living or deceased – or your grandfather, godfather or someone who is like a father to you. Beginning June 21, Father's Day, a Novena of Masses will be offered for all the intentions placed in front of the altar. These intentions will remain before the altar throughout the Novena. Fathers' Day Cards and extra novena envelopes are available in the vestibule of the Church.

Attention All Parish Organizations

Your calendar for the use of parish facilities from September 2020 to August 2021 should be submitted to Elaine in the Parish Office no later than July 31. Please make sure you submit your request to Elaine, in writing, as soon as possible, either by regular mail, or by email to estanislawski@stmaryfred.org. In setting up your schedule, please note that evening activities cannot be scheduled before 8pm Monday through Wednesday from September through May, due to Religious Education classes in the Parish Life Center and the John Paul II House. Thank you.

Solemnity Of The Most Holy Body & Blood Of Christ (Corpus Christi)

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is also known as the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, which translates from Latin to "Body of Christ." This feast originated in France in the mid-thirteenth century and was extended to the whole Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. Having extolled the love of Our Savior manifested in the Holy Eucharist, he ordered the annual celebration of Corpus Christi on the Thursday following Trinity Sunday, and at the same time granted many Indulgences to the faithful for the attendance at Mass and at the Divine Office. This Office, composed at the request of the Pope by the Angelic Doctor St. Thomas Aquinas, is one of the most beautiful in the Roman Breviary, and has been admired not only for its wonderful devotion, but also for its literary excellence. This feast is celebrated in the USA on the Sunday following Trinity Sunday.

In the words of St. Thomas: "How inestimable a dignity, beloved brethren, divine bounty has bestowed upon us Christians from the treasury of its infinite goodness! For there neither is nor ever has been a people to whom the gods were so nigh as our Lord and God is nigh unto us."

"Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, hours of adoration ... especially on the Feast of Corpus Christi, ... concentrate our attention on the One who is the Bread of Life, life itself." (Saint John Paul II)

AI / Nar Anon Support Available

AI Anon is for those who have been affected by someone else's drinking, and members come together to learn a better way of life and how to find happiness. Especially at this time of year, it's important to know that you are not alone and there is help. There is an AI Anon meeting every Saturday at 10am in Room 204 of St. Mary's Parish Life Center.

Nar Anon is a program that offers support to family members and friends of loved ones struggling with substance abuse. All information and discussion is non-judgemental, informative and strictly confidential. Our meetings are in Room 100 in the Parish Life Center on Thursday from 7-8pm and are open to the community at large. Contact Wayne at cushingwr@gmail.com / 540-840-5230 or Wanda at wandasj823@gmail.com / 540-538-6978
