pax et bonum

Dear Folks,

Remember when the quarantine started and we had all sorts of plans for using that time? Instead we watched "Tiger King" on Netflix, and were launched into a summer of turmoil. This past week I went back to my seminary for a retreat. I last visited 22 years ago and was drawn in partly by the retreat master who had been my spiritual director, Father Fred Miller.

Did you know that priests are required by Church Law to get away every year for a minimum 5-day retreat? Why?

"The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." (Mk 6:30)

Or as described by Pope Francis on August 31, 2014: "Indeed, we Christians live in the world, fully integrated into the social and cultural reality of our time, and rightly so; but this brings with it the risk that we might become "worldly," that "the salt might lose its taste," as Jesus would say (cf. Mt 5:13)....This is why it is necessary to renew oneself by continually drawing sap from the Gospel."

Pope Francis directed these words to all Christians, not just priests.

I have often suggested to all of the faithful that they need to likewise make such a retreat if they want to be serious about the spiritual care of their souls.

If you have two weeks of vacation from your job every year, why not tithe? Take one of those 10 days and give it to the Lord by spending a day in prayer at the National Shrine, or at St. Mary's. Heck, if there were enough interest (like 1 person), I'd figure out how to help you by running a day of recollection here at the parish.

Alternatively, give more. I know there are plenty of folks who have stored up leave and face every year a 'use or lose' situation. How about now you plan to give one of those weeks to Jesus?

Holy Week is one such great time to do so, and there is plenty of time to plan for that now. There are a number of liturgies and ways that we could make this happen with daily mass and spiritual readings. (I will suggest some, if you ask me).

Are you salt of the earth that has lost its taste? You and I can only be restored by Jesus.

Pax et bonum,

Fr Mosimann

Additional Phase 3 Information

A limited Mass schedule will return to St Mary's Church this weekend. Sign-ups will NOT be required, Social distancing and FACE MASKS ARE REQUIRED FOR ALL MASSES.

FOR MASSES AT HOLY CROSS ACADEMY GOING FORWARD, FOR THOSE AT RISK, WE WILL BE CONTINUING TO VERY STRICTLY ENFORCE MASKS AND AT HOLY CROSS COMMUNION WILL ONLY BE OFFERED IN THE HAND, SO IF YOU WANT TO COME TO MASS BUT WANT TO BE EXTRA CAUTIOUS, PLEASE CONSIDER HOLY CROSS ACADEMY.

The church and Holy Cross Academy will be sanitized after every Sunday Mass. This means when Mass is over, please leave promptly so the cleaners can wipe down all the surfaces. Ushers will still be giving directions and seating people, please continue to give them respect and comply with their requests. Please remember to leave 6 feet between people coming in and leaving Mass. Because of the continued need for social distancing, the seating capacity will be greatly reduced. No standing room will be provided. Please arrive early.

The Covenant

In today's reading from Isaiah, God renews the promise of an "everlasting covenant." A covenant is a promise or a pact between two people or two countries. God made a covenant with the Jewish people – Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, and David. Here, God once again assures us of the new and unbreakable covenant. This promise is fulfilled in Jesus because he represents both sides of the covenant. He stands before God as one of us, and he stands before us as God the Son. His blood seals the covenant in a never-ending love.

Choose Life Reflection

"Suddenly there were two men talking with Him – Moses and Elijah." (Luke 9:30) Jesus was transfigured; the glory of His divinity shone through His humanity, which reminds us that humanity always expresses the image of God. The Transfiguration was meant to remind the Apostles that death would not have the last word. Jesus, may Your Transfiguration be a powerful reminder that You have brought about a new kingdom of life."

"The hour of Transfiguration came for Jesus when He was about to enter the night of suffering and death. As members of His Body, we can only receive the grace of transfiguration, which He has won for us, by following the same path — the pathway of humiliation and purification." (Text of a Plaque at the Basilica of the Transfiguration in the Holy Land)

Only with hearts full of adoration can we ascend Mount Tabor, the Mount of Transfiguration. (Excerpt from The Holy Land Today by M. Basilea Schlink)

Children's Charity for August

Children's Offertory Contributions for the month of August will be donated to The Owen Lea Foundation. Owen was diagnosed with stage IV Neuroblastoma just two weeks after his second birthday. After nearly six years of countless rounds of chemotherapy, radiation, numerous surgeries, a stem cell transplant, and two clinical trials, on August 26th, 2009 Owen lost his battle and heaven gained another angel.

The Owen Lea Foundation was established to provide support to families living with Neuroblastoma. The financial and emotional burdens of treating a child with cancer can be devastating. Your assistance will help families alleviate some of these overwhelming costs that are not otherwise covered by insurance, such as travel to and from treatment centers and co-pays for necessary medicines. Sadly in many cases this money also replaces life insurance which is unobtainable for families in this situation.

The Owen Lea Foundation is an all volunteer run organization. 100% of your donation goes directly to the families who need your assistance, so that they can focus their energy where it is needed the most- the care of their child. We are a 501(c)(3) IRS registered charity and 100% of your donation is tax deductible. We are based in Fredericksburg, Virginia, and while we focus on local families, we provide assistance to families nation-wide. For more information, visit owenleafoundation.org.

Attention All Parish Organizations

2020 to August 2021 should be submitted to Elaine in the Parish Office no later than July 31. Please make sure you submit your request to Elaine, in writing, as soon as possible, either by regular mail, or by email to estanislawski@stmaryfred.org. In setting up your schedule, please note that evening activities cannot be scheduled before 8pm Monday through Wednesday from September through May, due to Religious Education classes in the Parish Life Center and the John Paul II House.

Prayer For Priests

"Only in Heaven will he be able to measure his greatness. If he were to understand it already here on earth, he would die, not of fright, but of love ... After God, the priest is all." (St. John Vianney, Patron of Parish Priests, Feast Day August 4th)

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep Your priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with Your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of Your priesthood. Let Your holy love surround them, and shield them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit, and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here on earth, and in Heaven, their everlasting crown. Amen.

– St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus & the Holy Face

Mary, Queen of the Clergy, we pray: obtain for us many holy priests & vocations to the priesthood.
