Dear Folks,

Another quick note to invite you to participate in our parish Special Event – “An Evening of Recollection” ~ Spiritual Reflections on our Parish Theme - Love One Another. Monday, September 28th 7:00pm via Facebook Live. With all that has been 2020, and after consulting with the Stewardship Committee, we settled on this theme for obvious reasons. Yes, we need listen to each other. Yes, we need to better understand one another. But listening and understanding are themselves not enough. We must heed our Lord's words to “love one another, as I have loved you.”

Recently we read the parable of the Lord's mercy and generosity to the workers who all receive the same daily wage despite some working twelve hours, and others, one hour. I have often been struck by how gentle the parable is to those who only come out for the last hour of work. Jesus does not correct their “half-truth” response that nobody would hire them. He does not condemn them for having slept in all day. And He does not call out selfish motives. If Jesus, who knows all things, is merciful and kind with me for my mixed motives and imperfection, then how much more must I live likewise?

A great many of our issues today would melt away in the rays of divine mercy if each of us refused to guess and condemn the motives and hearts of our friends and enemies. So many of our sins today are sins of rash judgement. “Love one another” is not a suggestion or a cliché; it is a command from the Lord and a precondition for passing through the pearly gates.

During the pandemic, St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception has risen to this challenge in so many ways: record-breaking food drives, distance learning for the school and religious education, streaming Masses and devotions! Many of the ways that we meet, pray and serve have been in constant flux. Several of our ministries are in need of volunteers who are not high-risk for Covid. This year we want to highlight a few of the ways that you can serve right now!

Thank you for your generosity in serving and loving all of God's children.

Pax et bonum,

Fr Mosimann

Lectio Divina with Deacon Alberto

On Tuesday, October 6th, Deacon will begin guiding us weekly in separate Lectio Divina exercises in English and Spanish. This is to help us better appreciate and live the Word of God (Scripture). At every Mass the Word of God is proclaimed and explained to us. Deacon will guide us through the Mass readings for the following Sunday. He will begin on Zoom for a few weeks to help us understand the exercise and ask questions. After the few weeks he will use Facebook. Next week we will send you the English and Spanish Zoom links for October 6th. Below is short explanation of Lektion Divina by Deacon Alberto in English and Spanish.

“Lectio Divina is Latin for “sacred reading,” an ancient Christian spiritual practice of reading the Holy Scriptures with intentionality and devotion. This practice helps Christians center themselves and descend to the level of the heart to enter an inner-focused quiet space, finding God. This sacred reading is distinct from reading to obtain knowledge or information, or other types of reading. Furthermore, Lectio Divina is more than the pious practice of spiritual reading. Rather, it is the practice of opening ourselves to the action and inspiration of the Holy Spirit. As we intentionally focus our attentiveness and become present to the inner meaning of the scriptural text we are reading, the Holy Spirit enlightens our minds and hearts. We come to the text willing to be influenced by a deeper meaning that lies within the words and thoughts we ponder.”

“Lectio Divina en latín significa “lectura sagrada”, una antigua práctica espiritual cristiana de leer las Sagradas Escrituras con intencionalidad y devoción. Esta práctica ayuda a los cristianos a centrarse y descender al nivel del corazón para entrar en un espacio tranquilo centrado en el interior, encontrando a Dios. Esta lectura sagrada es distinta de la lectura para obtener conocimiento o información u otros tipos de lectura. Además, la Lectio Divina es más que la práctica piadosa de la lectura espiritual. Más bien, es la práctica de abrirnos a la acción y la inspiración del Espíritu Santo. A medida que enfocamos intencionalmente nuestra atención y nos hacemos presentes en el significado interno del texto bíblico que estamos leyendo, el Espíritu Santo ilumina nuestra mente y corazón. Llegamos al texto dispuestos a ser influenciados por un significado más profundo que se encuentra dentro de las palabras y pensamientos que meditamos.”

Week Four Religious Education: Chapter Three/Session Three

This week parents will receive the third video lesson on Tuesday. Please watch and discuss the video. Students whose text is “Christ Our Life” go to the Family Catechesis Resources at loyolapress.com/fait-formation/christ-our-life/christ-our-life-2016/parents-and-students/. Review the Study Guide for Chapter 3 and do the Interactive chapter Review for Chapter 3 and email it to religious@stmaryfred.org. Please remember that you have one week to submit the Interactive Chapter Review.

Year 2 First Communion students, do the exercises at the end of Reconciliation Session 3/God's Gift Chapter 3. Students preparing for First Holy Communion are also receiving the videos for their grade.

Daily Mass and Devotionals on Facebook

Religious Education families are asked to regularly participate in the live streaming of Daily Mass and devotionals on Facebook at facebook.com/pg/stmaryfred/videos/

Daily Mass: 9am Every Day

Sunday Mass: 8:30am in English, 2:30pm in Spanish

Rosary: 6:30pm Every Day

This activity is beneficial for all students but particularly essential for students preparing for sacraments of Holy Eucharist and Confirmation.

FORMED
PICK OF THE WEEK

Padre Pio

Based on the historical records and the personal testimony of his fellow friars, this is the amazing true story of the life of the famous stigmatic monk, St. Padre Pio, a contemporary saint who died in 1968. Blessed with incredible spiritual gifts, including healing, bi-location, reading of souls, and the stigmatic wounds, Padre Pio was a powerful witness for Christ, and a great spiritual guide to countless souls for over fifty years.

The Feast of the Exaltation

The Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross is always a special day at Holy Cross Academy. Father Mosimann celebrated Mass in Father Brisson Hall which was live streamed into our classrooms and homes for students to pray together as a school community. We also were treated to free ice cream for our feast day!

The following day, on the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows, Father Mosimann blessed our new Stations of the Cross, donated by HCA alumnus John Paul Frasher in honor of his brother, David. The eighth graders helped lead the school virtually through the Stations, again live streaming into classrooms and homes. We feel very blessed to continue old traditions and create new ones during this uncertain time.

To learn more about Holy Cross Academy, please visit our website (holycrossweb.com) or call us at 540-286-1600. We would love to share with you what makes HCA so special!

Faith Direct

Thank you for being a part of our St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception family. As you prepare for the end of summer and the start of a busy fall, consider enrolling in eGiving through Faith Direct so that your gift can reach us even when you cannot. Visit faithdirect.net and use our church code: VA635. Thank you for your continued support of our parish family!

Walking With Purpose Women's Bible Study

Are you looking for a way to refuel and be refreshed while making authentic connections with others? Would you like to have a better understanding of your faith and learn more about God? Walking with Purpose transforms the hearts and lives of women by providing Bible studies that enable women to know Christ through Scripture and the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church.

We will be meeting via Zoom this year due to the pandemic. We will be studying the Book of Hebrews with the Walking With Purpose study Grounded in Hope. If you are new to Bible Studies or the Walking with Purpose program, we will also be studying the introductory study Opening Your Heart. We will be meeting via Zoom on Tuesday evening 7-8pm or Thursday 7-8pm. Please contact Lisa Sarber at lisakymi@aol.com if you have any questions. Classes start September 29 and October 1.

Virtual Run/Walk Fundraiser

Join us for a VIRTUAL 5K or 1-Mile Fun Run this year! Just sign up, and run the specified distance (5K or 1 mile) through October 17. Once you have completed your race, email 5k@kofc4034.org with your time and/or completion date.

All donation and sponsor proceeds will be evenly divided between Saint Mary of the Immaculate Conception Parish and the Paul Stefan Home Foundation. We are very grateful to our individual contributors and to our business community partners for their monetary, product, donations of time and support! Register today at kofcfreedom5k.com.

Porto Charities Annual Collection for God's Special Children

October 3-4

The month of October has been designated as Disabilities Awareness Month, and Bishop Burbidge has enthusiastically endorsed Porto Charities "Special Kids, Special Needs Collection" on behalf of intellectually and developmentally challenged youth within the diocese. Next Sunday there will be a second collection to assist special need programs such as the Paul VI High School, Saint John Paul the Great and St. Mark's School Special Education Options Program, the Helen Keller Institute, Gabriel Home, Special Olympics, and the "Keyboard for Kids" program, which provides audiovisual communication capability to special needs students in the diocese. The Bishop has sanctioned this collection as a blessing for God's Special Children, their families and this entire diocese. Please be generous in your support of this worthwhile endeavor. All checks should be made payable to St. Mary Catholic Church. For more information, visit portocharities.org.

Pro-Life Reflection

In The Gospel of Life, Pope St. John Paul II commends "brave mothers... who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to [their children] the best of themselves" (EV 86). As members of the Body of Christ, we have a responsibility to help mothers do just that. And there are simple ways we can help mothers who desire to pursue educational achievements. We can offer to babysit or do the grocery shopping, so a mom has time to attend an evening class or study for an exam. We can advocate for colleges and universities to provide flexibility for parenting students. We can do these and so many other things. Most importantly, we can pray for mothers to be given the grace and the support they need, and for the wisdom to know how we can help.

Children's Charity for October

The children's charity that will benefit from Children's Offertory Envelopes in October is Safe Harbor Child Advocacy Center in Spotsylvania. This organization strives to strengthen the coordinated community response to situations of child maltreatment, including sexual abuse, severe physical abuse, severe neglect and fatalities, by integrating the existing resources of law enforcement, child protection, prosecution, medical and therapeutic agencies so that perpetrators are held accountable for their actions and children are not further traumatized by the investigative process. Children's Offertory Envelopes are available through Religious Education. All proceeds from these envelopes go to a different children's charity each month.

Respect Life Sunday

October 4

Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is observed as Respect Life Sunday. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life and pray for an end to the abortion holocaust that claims over one million American lives annually and has claimed over sixty-one million lives worldwide through surgical abortion.

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops provides many resources to help parishes, schools, families, ministries, and individual Catholics share the Gospel of Life during Respect Life Month and throughout the year. Although St. Mary will not participate in the Annual Life Chain this year, for the safety and well-being of everyone during the current pandemic, we encourage you to visit respectlife.org for many resources, prayers and devotion to help us join as a parish family in praying for an end to the holocaust of abortion and for the election of officials on all levels who will continue to defend life.

AI / Nar Anon Support Available

AI Anon is for those who have been affected by someone else's drinking, and members come together to learn a better way of life and how to find happiness. Especially at this time of year, it's important to know that you are not alone and there is help. There is an AI Anon meeting every Saturday at 10am in Room 204 of St. Mary's Parish Life Center.

Nar Anon is a program that offers support to family members and friends of loved ones struggling with substance abuse. All information and discussion is non-judgemental, informative and strictly confidential. Our meetings are in Room 100 in the Parish Life Center on Thursday from 7-8pm and are open to the community at large. Contact Wayne at cushingwr@gmail.com / 540-840-5230 or Wanda at wandasj823@gmail.com / 540-538-6978
