LOVE One Another

Special Ministry Issue

2020 - 2021

SAINT MARY of the IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

FREDERICKSBURG, VIRGINIA

Letter from Our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Mary's,

Thank you for participating in our parish evening of reflection on our theme for the year: "Love One Another." With all that has been 2020, and after consulting with the Stewardship Committee, we settled on this theme for obvious reasons. Yes, we need to listen to each other. Yes, we need to better understand one another. But listening and understanding are themselves not enough. We must heed our Lord's words to "love one another, as I have loved you."

Recently we read the parable of the Lord's mercy and generosity to the workers who all receive the same daily wage despite some working twelve hours, and others, one hour. I have often been struck by how gentle the parable is to those who only come out for the last hour of work. Jesus does not correct their "half-truth" response that nobody would hire them. He does not condemn them for having slept in all day. And He does not call out selfish motives. If Jesus, who knows all things, is merciful and kind with me for my mixed motives and imperfection, then how much more must I live likewise?

A great many of our issues today would melt away in the rays of divine mercy if each of us refused to guess and condemn the motives and hearts of our friends and enemies. So many of our sins today are sins of rash judgement. "Love one another" is not a suggestion or a cliche; it is a command from the Lord and a precondition for passing through the pearly gates.

During the pandemic, St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception has risen to this challenge in so many ways: record-breaking food drives, distance learning for the school and religious education, streaming Masses and devotions! Many of the ways that we meet, pray and serve have been in constant flux. Several of our ministries are in need of volunteers who are not high-risk for Covid. This year we want to highlight a few of the ways that you can serve right now!

Thank you for your generosity in serving and loving all of God's children.

pax,
fr mosimann

READ: Scripture: Matthew 14:22-23

Then he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but the boat by this time was many furlongs distant from the land, beaten by the waves; for the wind was against them. And in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out for fear. But immediately he spoke to them, saying, "Take heart, it is I; have no fear." And Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, bid me come to you on the water." He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus; but when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, "Lord, save me." Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "O man of little faith, why did you doubt?" And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

My LECTIO DIVINA with Fr. Mosimann

Personal Prayer with Fr. Koehr

Personal Prayer: A-R-R-R

Acknowledge: At the start of your prayer, take time to first acknowledge the presence of God within and around you. Focus your mind on the fact that God is here with you and gradually become aware of his presence in the room.

Next, acknowledge how you are in your life. What is going on? What is moving in your heart?

Relate: After having acknowledged how you are doing and what is consuming your attention, explain (relate) this to God. Share honestly and openly, speaking as yourself, not worrying about being formal with the words.

Receive: Once you have expressed what is consuming your thoughts spend time in inner silence listening to what God is doing with the movements of your heart. Receive his presence and the constancy of his love.

Respond: As we experience the love of God and his gentle guidance, our hearts become enthused with renewed vigor and understanding. The final stage of prayer is spending time in this moment of clarity discerning how to move forward with life.
