from our pastor pax et bonum

Dear Folks,

This weekend we welcome Fr. Cozzi who comes to us from his most recent assignment in at St. John the Baptist in Front Royal. The priests are looking forward to working with him in serving you!

Thanks for your loving and gracious farewell to Fr. Kelly. He will be greatly missed by the priests and people alike. However, the Lord's perfect plan guide all of our comings and goings.

You may not know, but there was once another Fr. Michael Kelly ministering in the diocese. He passed away in on New Year's Eve 2008. His last words written in his parish bulletin are great words of wisdom for priests and parishioners both in times of change:

"For 'who has known the mind of the Lord, so as to counsel him?'"
1 Corinthians 2: 16

The facts are these - nothing is happening that God has not already seen from all eternity. Also, He has seen all of our parts in His plan from all eternity.

What Our Lord desires of us is not a spirit of despair or a spirit of mindless presumption, but a spirit of prayerful trust. Since most of our present concerns are tied, directly or indirectly to money, pull out that penny again and see the most important words that we can read for the coming year:

IN GOD WE TRUST

pax,

Fr Mosimann

Importance of Religious Education: RATIONALE

"Catechesis refers to efforts which help individuals and communities acquire and deepen Christian faith and identity through initiation rites, instruction, and formation of conscience. It includes both the message presented and the way in which it is presented." National Catechetical Directory, #5 "There is a proper and serious duty, especially on the part of pastors of souls, to provide for the catechesis of the Christian people so that the faith of the faithful becomes living, explicit and productive through formation in doctrine and the experience of Christian living." Code of Canon Law, #773 "Catechetical instruction must be systematic, not improvised but programmed to reach a precise goal; -- it must deal with essentials, without any claim to tackle all disputed questions or to transform itself into theological research or scientific exegesis; -- it must nevertheless be sufficiently complete, not stopping short at the initial proclamation of the Christian mystery such as we have in the kerygma; -- it must be an integral Christian initiation, open to all other factors of Christian life." Catechesi Tradendae, Pope John Paul II, #19 arlingtondiocese.org/Catechetics/Policies\_and\_Guidelines

Dear Lord, we pray for the preservation of religious freedom in our country, that the right to freely worship God and live our lives according to His commands may be protected and upheld.

We ask You to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

Children's Offertory Envelopes for July

Children's Offertory Contributions for the month of July will be donated to Families of the Wounded Fund. This fund was created in 2005 to help the families of service members who come to McGuire Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Richmond with traumatic brain injuries and spinal-cord injuries from combat in Iraq and Afghanistan. Former Army Captain William Haneke, a wounded Vietnam Veteran, and some colleagues recognized the need to assist family members who were away from home tending to their loved ones when they saw two young mothers with babies arrive from across the country with no money and barely enough gas to make the trip. The organization gives 100 percent of all tax-deductible donations to the families to help with food, lodging, transportation, child care, diapers and long-distance calling cards during the many weeks a family is in the Richmond area, and each family who qualifies currently receives $9,000. For more information, visit their website at fotwf.org.

For 15 years, Saint Michael the Archangel Catholic High School in Fredericksburg,

VA has been providing quality, affordable Catholic education. Enrollment is now open and applications are available at saintmichaelhs.org/admissions. Summer hours are Mon-Thurs, 9am-1pm. Fully accredited and diocesan approved. Welcome to the Warrior Family!
