from our pastor pax et bonum

Dear Folks,

One new thing I learned this week: God spits.

Ok, that's not really new, b/c I have noticed that in the gospel for years. But the new tidbit is this: that Jesus spitting in the Gospel would have triggered a recollection from Genesis of God creating Adam.

Genesis 2:7 reads: "Then the LORD God formed the man out of the dust of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being."

The verb 'formed' is a word that means forming and molding with clay like a potter. However dust is dry and would thus resist being formed and holding a shape. What I learned is that, at the time of our Lord, there was a Jewish tradition that God used spit to moisten the dust, and form Adam. Ahhhhh.....

In Mark and John's gospels, when Jesus uses spit and dirt to form clay, for healing, evoking the Father's creative power in healing and restoring what has been damaged by sin. We will read one of the accounts from Mark's gospel (Mk 7:31-37) this coming Labor Day weekend.

Until recently, this was repeated in the Rite of Baptism. Most of you older than 50, were baptized in the old latin rite. The priest had to touch the infant's ears and mouth with his spit! I once did a baptism in the old rite and I thought, "really? gross!" Can't say I'd be excited to see that make a comeback in the CoronaVirusAge. But it now makes much more sense as a constant thread from the act of creation in Genesis, through the miraculous healings of our Lord, to our re-creation in baptism.

Fr Mosimann

religious education

Importance of Religious Education: According to the Catholic Church

School-age children should receive formal and systematic catechesis in a parish-based catechetical program, a Catholic school, or a program of home-based catechesis in which the content of the faith and the experience of Christian life is presented authentically and completely.

Having introduced them to the person of Jesus Christ within the family, catechesis for school-age children presents his teachings, his ministry, and the major events of his life. Children can begin to appreciate the parables of Jesus and capture glimpses of the Kingdom of God; they can learn more formal prayers; and they can commit brief passages of Sacred Scripture to memory. Catechesis for the Sacraments of Penance and Reconciliation and of the Eucharist is ordinarily provided in these early years of schooling. usccb.org/beliefs-and-teachings/who-we-teach/children

Religious Education Classes

Registration is going on at the parish office – Monday to Friday from 9:30am-7:30pm. Please bring a copy of your child's baptism certificate. Registration is $45/child. We only accept cash or checks. Students moving to grades 2 and 8 who have not submitted 18 chapters are asked to continue submitting the "Chapter Reviews." Parents, if you are not sure of your child's situation please call the parish office to discuss your child's case.

WHO AM I TO JUDGE? WITH DR. EDWARD SRI - SESSION 1: DON'T IMPOSE YOUR MORALITY ON ME!

What is "right" and "wrong"? Is what's right for you right for me? These are difficult questions to discuss in our culture. We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality. That there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. So, how do we talk about right and wrong in this world? In this series, Dr. Ted Sri explores the fragility of a relativist outlook and the importance of absolute truth.

So keep this in mind:

I didn't say to do the "work" of catechists, but to "be" catechists, because this is something that embraces our whole life. It means leading people to encounter Christ by our words and our lives, by giving witness.

Little Sisters Of The Poor Collection

July 31 - August 1

During the weekend of July 31 & August 1 our second collection will be for the Little Sisters of the Poor, who have provided a home and compassionate care for Virginia's elderly poor since 1874. Although the Sisters no longer have a Home in Richmond, they are able to care for the elderly poor in 24 Homes throughout the United States, including one in Washington DC and one in Baltimore, and the Parish wishes to support them as it has each year for over 25 years. Because their residents are of limited financial means, the Little Sisters depend upon the charity of friends and benefactors to operate their Homes. Your generosity will enable the Sisters to continue welcoming the needy elderly and providing them with the love and dignity they deserve. All donations should be made payable to St. Mary Catholic Church, and put in an envelope clearly marked "Little Sisters of the Poor". For those who still receive collection envelopes, an envelope for this collection is now provided in your packet. For more information, visit the Little Sisters website at littlesistersofthepoorvirginia.org. Thank you for your generosity and support.

Pro-Life Reflection

After the abortion, I never would have believed things could get better. But, amazingly, since my post-abortion counseling, I have experienced hope and healing and self-forgiveness. — A mother who lost a child in an abortion (Visit hopeafterabortion.com if you or someone you know has been affected by an abortion.) We pray for all those suffering from the effects of abortion, that they may be healed.

Children's Offertory Envelopes for July

Children's Offertory Contributions for the month of July will be donated to Families of the Wounded Fund. This fund was created in 2005 to help the families of service members who come to McGuire Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Richmond with traumatic brain injuries and spinal-cord injuries from combat in Iraq and Afghanistan. Former Army Captain William Haneke, a wounded Vietnam Veteran, and some colleagues recognized the need to assist family members who were away from home tending to their loved ones when they saw two young mothers with babies arrive from across the country with no money and barely enough gas to make the trip. The organization gives 100 percent of all tax-deductible donations to the families to help with food, lodging, transportation, child care, diapers and long-distance calling cards during the many weeks a family is in the Richmond area, and each family who qualifies currently receives $9,000. For more information, visit their website at fotwf.org.
