from our pastor

Dear folks,

What is Mercy?

I recall one convert saying in OCIA classes, "Grace is God giving us what we don't deserve. Mercy is God not giving us what we do deserve." I like the simplicity of that definition. The Feast of Divine Mercy is about letting God love you.

The Diary of St. Faustina is infused at every entry with the Lord asking her to invite souls to draw near to His mercy. "Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet (699). My mercy is greater than your sins, and those of the entire world (1485)."

With the help of quotes from St. Faustina, here are 3 steps to letting God love you a little more each day:

1. Ask for His mercy:

"Souls that make an appeal to My mercy delight Me. To such souls I grant even more graces than they ask. I cannot punish even the greatest sinner if he makes an appeal to My compassion (1146)."

2. Be merciful to others:

"I demand from you deeds of mercy which are to arise out of love for Me. You are to show mercy to your neighbors always and everywhere. You must not shrink from this or try to excuse yourself from it.... (742)"

3. Trust in His mercy:

"The graces of My mercy are drawn by means of one vessel only, and that is - trust. The more a soul trusts, the more it will receive (1578)."

Let God love you more today than yesterday. Every day.

Also, it is with sadness, but trust in the Lord that today we bid adieu to David Uschold. I am so grateful to the professionalism, artistry, wisdom and talent that he brought to his service as Director of Music. As parishioners have likely figured out, the relationship between pastor and music director is one of the most critical relationships to parish life. I have been blessed to work with him since 2017! David has earned all of the accolades that can be expressed and more! Please read his beautiful note in today's bulletin, and keep him in your prayers of thanksgiving.

fr mosimann

Divine Mercy Devotion

The Second Sunday of Easter, April 7, is also Divine Mercy Sunday. It was named by Pope John Paul II at the canonization of St. Maria Faustina on April 30, 2000, and then officially decreed by the Vatican. Jesus revealed in various revelations to St. Faustina that it was His desire that we celebrate this special feast. "The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy." (Diary, 699)

Come join us at Holy Cross Academy for Divine Mercy Devotions at 3pm on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 7. This is the perfect way to celebrate the final day of the Octave of Easter!

The Rosary: A Special Way to Pray

Join Brother Francis in this entertaining and guidance-filled presentation that will inspire children to deepen their faith by praying the Rosary!

Why Catholics believe in "life everlasting"

The Catholic Church cares about every BODY. Think of relics and funerals—reverence for our bodies and the body's of holy people is part of being Catholic. But why? We find the answer at the end of the Creed: "I believe in the resurrection of the body and life everlasting." That's a pretty strong statement and it's founded on Jesus. Because Jesus rose from the dead, we can look forward to our own body's being raised at the end of time. Pretty cool, right?

Not Just a Legal Transaction | Lectio: Salvation | Episode 5

After the Fall, each person is born not only with the stain of sin on their soul but also with a fallen human nature. Thanks be to God that his gift of salvation not only frees us from Original Sin but also transforms us from the inside out, healing the root of our brokenness: our hearts. As we will see in this session, salvation is not simply a legal transaction by which we are declared righteous, but by the gift of God's Spirit we are actually made righteous.

our parish farewell message

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Saint Mary Parish,

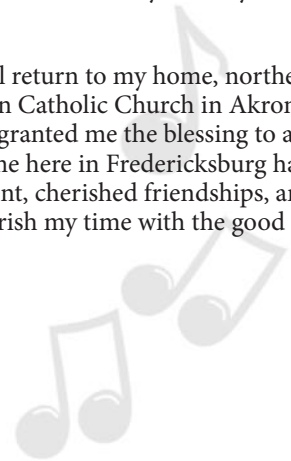

As I write you today to bid you farewell, I can't help but reflect on my years at Saint Mary. When I came to the parish in 2017, I had never lived away from northeast Ohio. Coming to Virginia promised new challenges and experiences within my career and a whole new life's adventure. So much has happened in my almost seven years here in Fredericksburg. From the hustle and bustle of daily parish life to the many involved liturgies and programs produced at this parish, these years have gone by quickly. And who could forget 2020 with the pandemic. We all had to find a new way of living and communicating for a while which gave us all a new perspective on life and what we hold dear.

It has been a privilege to serve as your Director of Music and Organist. I have enjoyed working with so many wonderful people and building what I hope to be life-lasting friendships. It is my hope, through my leadership of the ministry and through my artistry, that I have been able to bring the faithful closer to Jesus Christ. I would like to thank Father Mosimann for allowing me the opportunity to serve this parish and to all the parochial vicars and deacons who I have served with who have shown me such great support. To the staff of Saint Mary: this experience has been unlike anything I have ever experienced in my thirty years of ministry, almost like having a second family. A heart-felt thank you to the many good people who have served the music ministry under my leadership. We have much to be proud of. We have grown both musically and spiritually, and as a result, have brought all who we have touched with our music closer to the Eucharist. And to all the people of Saint Mary, thank you for your support and gratitude of my ministry.

Today, as I say goodbye to the people of Saint Mary and Fredericksburg, I will return to my home, northeast Ohio, to begin a new chapter in my life as Director of Music of Saint Sebastian Catholic Church in Akron, Ohio. I am excited for what new challenges lie ahead and am grateful that God has granted me the blessing to again be able to work and live in close proximity to my family. That being said, my time here in Fredericksburg has been consequential, leaving me with a wonderful life's experience, great achievement, cherished friendships, and most importantly, a closer relationship with our Lord. Know that I will always cherish my time with the good people of Saint Mary and will keep you in my prayers always.

In Christ's Love,

David R. Uschold

Pro-Life Reflection

So where was Thomas on that first Easter night? Perhaps he was out looking for Jesus! After all, he had to see things for himself. Yet Thomas did not find Jesus until he returned to the community of Peter and the other Apostles. We too need the community of the Church united around the successor of Peter. There we find the strength to affirm life. Lord, keep me always in union with the Church and vigorous in proclaiming life!

Children's Charity - April

The children's charity that will benefit from offerings in April is the Operation Purple Program of the National Military Family Association. When you hear "Operation Purple Camp" you should think: Kids Serve Too! The camps are a time for having fun, making friends, and reminding military kids that they are the Nation's youngest heroes.

The Operation Purple program was created in 2004 to fill a need identified by military parents to "help us help our kids." The mission of the Operation Purple program is to empower military children and their families to develop and maintain healthy and connected relationships, in spite of the current military environment. We do this through a variety of means, including the healing and holistic aspect of the natural world. The program is joint or "purple"—encompassing all Service branches, including the National Guard and Reserve.

Since its creation in 2004, the Operation Purple program has grown to serve nearly 70,000 military children and teens. The Operation Purple program also includes family retreats at national parks and specialized family camps geared to address the needs of children and families of our nation's wounded service members.

For more information, visit their website at militaryfamily.org/programs/operation-purple/.

Is Your Heart Broken by a Loved One's Addiction to Drugs?

If so, please be aware that there is a program at St. Mary that offers support to family members and friends of loved ones struggling with a drug addiction problem. The program is called NAR-ANON.

At NAR-ANON meetings, you will have the opportunity to share your story, hear stories from other members, and develop positive coping mechanisms in dealing with your addict.

Compassion and understanding are ever present at the meetings. You are not alone in this struggle! Please take the first step and come to a meeting. Just listen if you want. There is no pressure to share.

The meetings are held at St. Mary Catholic Church in Room 100 in the Parish Life Center on Thursday from 6-7pm and are open to the public at large. For more information call or text Wayne (540)840-5230 or Wanda (540)538-6978
